15/78	CHURCHYARD
	Report Rev Green provided a briefing note, about the Churchyard, in his absence: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The church look forward to Turfsoil starting work for 2015 soon. Down to Earth are due on site on Monday, 9th February 2015 and Tuesday, 10th February to carry out the works previously agreed. The church are just rounding up the last of the residents' permissions to access gardens for the work on the trees that line the back of Churchfields. Mr Musker, Rev Green and a man from the Diocese are meeting a technician from South East Water on Monday, 9th February 2015 to investigate the problems with overly large water bills and whether the standpipe in the Churchyard has undiagnosed problems causing the big bills. Mr Musker reported that due to a timing misunderstanding South East Water did not turn up at the agreed time slot. They will arrange another meeting with them.

	Site Meeting
	The Assistant Clerk reported that the Clerk had spoken to Rev Green regarding setting up a site meeting. Rev Green said he would be happy to host a meeting but did not think one was necessary at this time. Mr Stevens proposed that a site meeting be deferred until after May 2015; this was seconded by Mr Selkirk.
	Any Other Churchyard Matters
	Miss Macdonald said that the church will be hosting their first working party of the year on Saturday, 7 th March 2015. Starting at 10am for one hour. (7.50pm Miss Macdonald and Mr Musker left the meeting)
15/79	MACEY'S MEADOW
	It was noted that DRAFT minutes of the meeting held on 28 th January 2015 had been received. Mr Doyle reported: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • They have been clearing the recent storm damage, cutting wood into chippings and spreading on the paths • The second wildflower area had been fenced off • Hawthorn on allotment boundary to be dealt with • Magnificent Meadows are unable to offer grants but do have a pool of equipment for cutting and baling. They can take the hay bales if not saleable. • Magnificent Meadows and the Orchard Project will be liaising on plans for a joint launch event in the meadow. The 9th May 2015 is a possibility. They hope this will encourage new members. • Orchard Project Group will be carrying out various surveys on wildlife and hope to include the local schools.
15/80	FOOTBALL PITCH
	It was noted that a request had been received from the existing club to allow another of their teams to use the pitch on alternate Sundays. The Clerk has sought advice from Turfsoil and a reply is awaited.	Clerk	✓
